BUSINESS MEN SUPPORT REPUBLICANS

"If the business men of this city are not supporting the Republican ticket as they never did before, I don't know what the list of contributions to the campaign fund means," said one of the Republican workers this morning.

"We have every representative firm of the city on the list and we have not had the slightest trouble in obtaining contributions, nor have the donors been critical of the ticket or party management. During no campaign that I know of has the response for the sinews of war been more satisfactory.

"As I look over the list I am inclined to the opinion that if business men read in the Advertiser that they should not contribute, they take it as a sure indication that there is no doubt of the entire worthiness of the Republican cause and the Republican ticket.

"It can be truthfully said that we have the solid support of the business community.

"And why should we not? "Candidates whom business men endorsed were placed on the ticket, and the platform declares in plain terms for what the business men asked.

"Republicans are working together for victory in splendid shape. You will find an occasional buccaneer, one of the chronic knockers, who is following the morning paper lead, but the solid men of the town are staying with the Republican party and its candidates.

"Of course we have to work. But we'll win."

SIBERIA HAS BIG PASSENGER LIST

The P. M. S. S. Siberia arrived at Honolulu this morning, tying up at the Navy dock at 8 o'clock. The Siberia has a big passenger list, many of whom stop off here. The list includes two touring parties, one a Cook's and the other a Raymond's. There are 186 cabin passengers, 23 steerage and 196 Asiatic passengers. Fifty-five cabin passengers, 19 steerage and one Asiatic are for Honolulu.

The Siberia brings no freight for this port and will take none on board here. Her cargo consists of 4000 tons for Oriental ports.

Mr. Bailey is first officer of the Siberia this voyage, taking the place of Mr. Ludlow, who has laid off. Mr. Bailey used to be second officer two years ago, but went east.

The vessel reports a pleasant and uneventful trip from San Francisco. She will resume her voyage to the Orient at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The Siberia passed the steamer Hihonian two days ago, and at 1 o'clock yesterday morning passed the Sopoma, burning signals to her as she went by.

Among the passengers of the Siberia are a number of missionaries returning to their posts in the East. Rev. G. B. Baird is en route for Shanghai. Mr. Ringer, of Messrs. Holme, Ringer & Co., of Nagasaki, agents of the Pacific Mail at that port, is returning to Japan with his family, after having made a tour of Europe. A number of prominent people of Honolulu returned on the Siberia from the States.

REPUBLICANS TALK OVER THEIR PLAN

The meeting of the sub-committee of the Republicans of the Fourth District was held last night at the Hingalow to decide on campaign matters.

J. H. Boyd of the First, stated that in his precinct 208 had registered and that there were about 150 left, mostly in the Waikiki end of the precinct. He stated that the outlook was very encouraging that all the Republican voters would be registered.

E. Buffandau stated that it would be harder to register the voters in his precinct on account of the fact that it includes Maunaloa Valley and Koiki Head. He had no doubt of covering the Territory well.

Clarence Crabbe stated that his precinct was very large and that there was a great deal of work to be done. At the present time the outlook, he said, was very good for the registration.

C. W. Holt stated that in the Ninth district was large and a good deal of work was needed as it covered the Punchbowl and the men on the Nuuanu dam.

Walter F. Drake was unanimously elected treasurer of the district sub-committee to handle such funds as may be needed for the expenses of the campaign.

On motion of H. E. Murray the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of three to arrange central places for meetings throughout the campaign. Col. Zeigler appointed Clarence Crabbe, Sam Johnson and J. H. Boyd.

Those present were J. H. Boyd, Geo. Malle, C. W. Zeigler, Chas. Coster, Sam Johnson, J. B. Gorman, H. E. Murray, C. W. Booth, W. F. Drake, E. A. Long, J. F. Holt and Clarence Crabbe.

Death of Chun Afong At Makao Announced By Cable PROMINENT MERCHANT DIES AT RIPE AGE

News was this morning received by cable of the death of Chun Afong in China. The cablegram was received by Bishop & Co., who state that no particulars were given regarding the death. It is presumed that it took place at Makao, where the deceased had made his residence for the past sixteen years. Owing to widespread family connections of the late Mr. Afong, in the islands as well as on the mainland, his death is an event which is bound to attract more than usual attention.

Chun Afong's career was an exceedingly picturesque one. He was born in China, but emigrated to Hawaii, being one of the first of his race to arrive in the kingdom. In spite of the fact that he was a poor man, without influence or friends, when he landed, his energy and marvelous business ability soon raised him above this level, and soon after his arrival he engaged in mercantile business.

In 1858 Afong married Julia Fairweather, a part-Hawaiian lady. At the same time he was naturalized as a Hawaiian citizen, the law of the kingdom providing that no alien could marry a Hawaiian. In the meantime Afong prospered in business, and he entered into partnership with Ah Chuck, a wealthy Chinese merchant, whereafter the two carried on business together for a number of years under the firm name of Ah Chuck & Ah Fong. Their business was a large one, their store being one of the largest and best supplied in the city, and extensively patronized by the white community.

After the death of his partner, Ah Chuck, Afong continued the business alone. Later on, he went into the sugar business, having acquired the lands of Pepeekeo and Kapakapea, in Hilo district, Hawaii, where he established the plantation known as the Pepeekeo Sugar Co., which he later sold out to Alexander Young.

In 1890 Afong left for China for the last time, and has resided in Macao ever since. Before he left he settled a certain sum on his wife and children. His business affairs he left in the hands of S. M. Damon. He was about 81 years old at the time of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Afong had sixteen children, of whom fifteen live to mourn the loss of their father, one having died in infancy. The children who are now in this city are as follows:

Mrs. Emmaline M. Magoon, the wife of J. Alfred Magoon, the attorney.

Mrs. Nancy L. McStocker, who married Frank B. McStocker, the former manager of the Olua plantation.

Miss Mary Catherine Afong, who is living with her mother at their Nuuanu Valley residence.

Mrs. Alice Lillian Hutchinson, who was married to Dr. Edson L. Hutchinson, the dentist, but was later on divorced from him.

Mrs. Mary Humphreys, the wife of Judge Humphreys.

Mrs. Helen A. Henshall, the widow of William A. Henshall, the attorney who was drowned when the steamship Rio de Janeiro went down in San Francisco Bay a few years ago.

Albert Afong, the stock-broker.

Henry Afong, who resides on Beretania street.

Mrs. Julia Johnstone, the wife of Arthur Johnstone of this city.

Mrs. Carrie Riggs, who is married to J. M. Riggs, with Hackfeld & Co.

The children who are not on the islands are:

Anthony Afong, who is in Macao, where he has lived with his father for many years.

Mrs. Martha Doherty, the wife of Lieutenant Doherty, who is now at some Army post on the mainland.

Mrs. Etta Whiting, the wife of Admiral Whiting, now residing at Berkeley, Cal.

Mrs. Beattie Burns, the wife of R. Burns, an insurance man of New York.

Mrs. Melaine Brewster, who married W. W. Brewster, who was for a time a partner in the Honolulu Photo Supply Co. They are now living in New York.

SUGAR STOCKS BOUGHT FREELY

The San Francisco Recorder of September 18, says:

Onomea Sugar took an active part in this morning's regular session of the Stock and Bond Exchange. Yesterday the stock sold at $37.62 1/2, and from all appearances a large quantity of stock could have been purchased at that price. Today the stock sold up from $37.62 1/2 to $39. A total of 723 shares changed hands, the bulk of which sold at $39. This company is reported to have had a very successful year and rumors of an increased monthly dividend from 30c to 40c are heard in the street. The New York sugar market still remains steady at 48c, which also has effect on all sugar shares.

The balance of the sugar stocks remained firm, with Makaweli in the lead. This stock sold 250 shares at $36 and $36.50. Hutchinson sold 10 shares at $44.50.

Hbe Recorder of the 19th says:

The sudden rise in Onomea Sugar stock which has taken place for the past few days and which has sent the price of that stock up from $33.50 on September 1 to $39.50 today was accounted for this morning by the receipt of a cable from Honolulu by Edward Pollitz & Co. The Onomea Sugar people have increased their regular monthly dividend from 30 cents to 50 cents payable on October 5. The total 500 Panahan S. P. Co. $18.

ed in vain for the third party candidate.

Murphy is Mum.

Cayuga swung into the anti-Hearst column, too, and sent a delegation headed by Auburn's former Mayor, Thomas M. Osborne, promoter of the Albany conference, who was commended to the Democracy of the State as a clean, courageous, capable candidate for Governor.

In this end of the State Charles F. Murphy was significantly mum, while the Sullivan clan and Mayor McClellan's allies declared that Hearst was 'impossible' as a Democratic candidate and that the Tammany delegation under their control would not support him in the convention.

With the report that Charles P. Murphy's sentiment for William R. Hearst had greatly diminished since the primaries, and the emphatic statement from the Sullivan that in no circumstance would they accept Mr. Hearst as a nominee, came the announcement tonight that a committee of well known Democrats will call on Mr. Murphy and Patrick H. McCarren tomorrow in the interest of Representative William Sulzer's candidacy.

Uttering a warning to Democrats who are contemplating a betrayal of the party by favoring the nomination of W. R. Hearst, District Attorney Jerome said today that these men might succeed in betraying their party, but that political death would be their fate.

Higgins May Withdraw

While he spoke he referred to Chas. F. Murphy and W. J. Conners as former barkeepers and said these men could not sell and deliver true Democratic like so many cattle. In this connection he spoke of Mr. Hearst as a "political marauder" and declared the Democratic party in this State was in no imminent danger of having its address bore the signatures of the following Democratic organizations comprising the allied clubs: The National Democratic Club of the City of New York, the Jefferson League, representing the committee of 100 citizens; the American Anti-Trust League; the Bryan Democratic League and the Federation of Workmen of the State of New York.

They are attested by "William P. Mitchell, chairman, and Henry B. Martin, secretary."

The address calls upon Democrats throughout the State to save the party from "the loss of Democracy who seek only its disruption and plot only its betrayal."

MACK DESERTED HIM

New York, Sept. 19.—What is regarded as the beginning of the end of W. R. Hearst's effort to coerce the Democratic party into nominating him for Governor developed today. Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, member of the Democratic national committee and one of the leaders in the Hearst movement, issued a letter declaring that he could not see his way, in view of the nomination of Mr. Hearst by his own Independence League, to support the editor further.

Mr. Mack also addressed a letter to Mayor Adam of Buffalo, requesting him to allow the use of his name as a candidate for Governor. Mayor Adam replied that the price paid for such surrender as the acceptance of the Hearst candidacy was beneath the dignity of the Democratic party and said that it was the duty of any Democrat to accept a nomination "and stand or fall, as might be, by the good old Democratic way," for the principles of the party.

When this correspondence was passing the nine Democratic Assembly District conventions of Erie County met and instead of instructing delegates for Mr. Hearst, as had been expected, made no mention of his name and selected delegates who, with one or two exceptions, will under no circumstances vote for Mr. Hearst.

Reports from many quarters indicate that the lunacy is rapidly escaping from the Hearst machine and that it is coming down like the stick of a rocket.

Democrats Endorse HOME RULER AND Labor Party Men

The Democratic County Committee held a meeting last night at which it endorsed Charles Broad of the Republican Labor Party, and Kalatohalani of the Home Rulers, for Senators, and Joe Fern, another Republican Labor Party man, for Supervisor.

The only position left vacant on the Democratic ticket is that of representative from Wailua. The Democrats are inclined to endorse Maheo, the Home Rule candidate, but are waiting to see if the Home Rulers are reciprocating, before they do so.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Santos are the parents of a boy, born yesterday morning.
